

TEACHING AGREEMENT FOR ACCESS AND USE OF DATA

This understanding refers to the conditions of use of data and documentation from the List of Documents of the contract, hereby referred to as "materials".

Please return the completed forms to RODA, every year in late June.

1. Purpose - to use the materials listed in the table only for teaching and research.
2. Confidentiality/Privacy - always keep the confidentiality of information that may lead to the identification of subjects and/or registered households data sets. In addition, where appropriate, preserve the confidentiality of information about or provided by different organizations or registered data sets. In particular, I undertake not to use and/or attempt to use data sets for the purposes of deliberate compromise of subjects, households or organizations, thus respecting professional ontology of social data manipulation.
3. Copyright - Copies of the material offered by RODA are to be used only for personal use.
4. Publications - to forward RODA a request for permission to publish any report or work based whole on or partially on the materials listed in the table below.
5. Access offered to other people – do not allow any other person to access the data and the materials received.

List of documents containing the data bases used:

Study number	Title

Name of registered user (ie: the person who completed the registration form and supervises the students whose signatures appear below) in capital letters:

Name
Institution
Signature

Students are asked to fill in their details in capital letters below:

Name	Signature	Date